A thought on today's Gospel

When the king summons the high ranking official for the second time , he denounces him and details the action he expected from him: he should take direction from the King's actions. If he is loyal to the king and understand the monarch's message to him, then he should have replicated what the king did. The king showed him how it was to be done .Instead he has shamed the king by not imitating him

COLLECTION Last Sunday £ 303.00 Thank you
